“And let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching”

Hebrews 10: 23-25

One day I (Amber) was driving home from the shop and a song by Bethel Music, “Goodness of God” came on the radio. The lyrics go:

*And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God---*

This song always reminds me just how faithful God is and how constant His presence is within the work of Jesus Driven. It is all too easy to get bogged down by day-to-day tasks, unfruitful conversations, and tough decisions, but when we take time to reflect it is absolutely amazing what God has done and continues to do.

For the last few months, I have been having regular meetings with one of our clients, Tina. Tina has a long trauma history and struggles with mental health issues as a result. Tina and I get together to talk about life,

Jesus, and sometimes prayer.

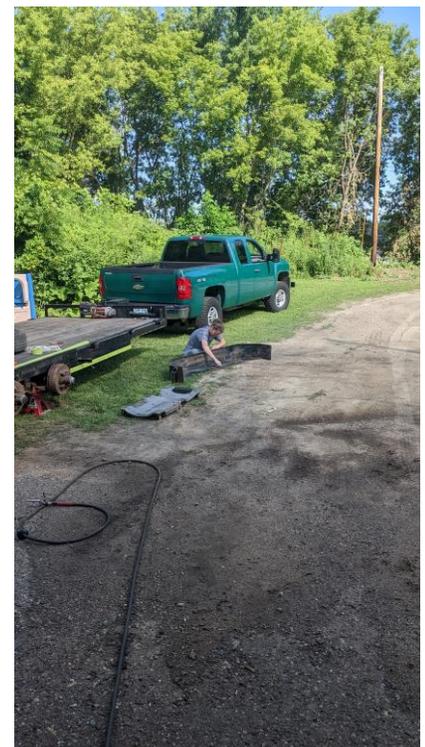

I was supposed to meet with Tina, but I was having one of those days where I really wanted to cancel. Daycare was sick, so our daughter was going to have to come with, it was hot, and I had other stuff to do. Stuff I would rather be doing. It would’ve been easy to cancel. I hemmed and hawed, knowing full well that I was going to go the whole time.

When I got to the park, Tina shared how she had been depressed lately. She almost cancelled on me as well, but she was glad she didn’t. She shared that it was good for her to not isolate, and my text the day prior was the prompting that she needed to get out of the house.

It is such a pleasure to watch God work, even when we are His unenthusiastic tools. His plan and timing are perfect, even when we really don’t want any part of it. He is always faithful!

Please be praying for our hearts, as well as the hearts of our clients. It has been a difficult season filled with difficult clients. As hard as we try to not let our hearts harden towards our clients, sometimes prayer is the only way to keep them soft. It is a blessing to be reminded that we need the Holy Spirit to be working in our hearts and lives if we hope to continue to reach our clients with the Gospel.

Praises & Prayer Requests

- That Jesus would prepare the hearts of our clients to receive Him
- That we continue to recognize God’s faithfulness
- That we listen to the Holy Spirit and have boldness with our clients.
